

Dor-Wood Optimist Club

“Continuing Education Scholarship

Award” - 2017

The purpose of the Dor-Wood Optimist Continuing Education Scholarship Award is to recognize and honor graduating seniors from Kettering Fairmont High School and from Archbishop Alter High School. In establishing these scholarship awards, the Dor-Wood Optimist Club is attempting to encourage excellence in education and a spirit of volunteerism in the youth of our community.

In 2017 we amazingly will be giving eight (8) scholarships – four (4) to each high school. Each of these awards will be a $2000.00 stipend to be sent to the school of his/her choice. This choice may be a university, college, two-year college or trade school, and the stipend may be used for tuition fees, room and board if living on campus, or books and supplies. This is a one-time grant and cannot be renewed.

GUIDELINES:

+ Applicants must be graduating from Archbishop Alter High School or Kettering Fairmont High School in the spring of 2017.

+ Applicants must be in good standing in his or her high school with a GPA of 3.00 or higher, active in extracurricular activities, active in community service, and must be an all-around good citizen.

+ Applicants are responsible for submitting the application form and written material for this award, so that it is received by the date of Thursday, April 6, 2017.
