

Dor-Wood Optimist Club

“Continuing Education Scholarship

Award” - 2019

The purpose of the Dor-Wood Optimist Continuing Education Scholarship Award is to recognize and honor graduating seniors living in Kettering and attending Alter or Fairmont High Schools. In establishing these scholarship awards, the Dor-Wood Optimist Club is attempting to encourage excellence in education and a spirit of volunteerism in the youth of Kettering.

In 2019 we amazingly will be giving six (6) scholarships – three (3) each to Kettering Fairmont and Kettering Alter. Each award will be a $2000.00 stipend sent to the school of choice. This choice may be a university, college, two-year college or trade school. The stipend may be used for tuition fees, room and board if living on campus, or books and supplies. This is a one-time grant and cannot be renewed.

GUIDELINES:

+ Applicants must be Kettering Residents graduating from Archbishop Alter High School or Kettering Fairmont High School in 2019.

+ Applicants must be in good standing in his or her high school with a GPA of 3.00 or higher, active in extracurricular activities, active in community service, and must be an all-around good citizen.

+ Applicants are responsible for submitting the application form and written material for this award, so that it is received any time after March 1, 2019, and no later than Friday, March 29, 2019.

Applications:

Applications can be found through the counselor's office at Alter or Fairmont High Schools or by going to the Dor-Wood website: www.dorwood.org and clicking on “Dor-Wood Scholarship” on the left-hand side.
